Foreword

We may forget many faces and many events but our three years in this nursing school, with its joys and sorrows, its failures and accomplishments and its lasting companionships, will always remain in our memory.

We will always be indebted to those, who through their patience and understanding, have added greatly to our knowledge and achievement of our goal.

With mixed emotions, we leave behind us our many experiences and close relationships with those with whom we worked. We look to the future with confidence and self-assurance and out of deep hunger, great dreams will grow.

In this yearbook, we want to show to you the real "spirit of THE WHITE CAP."

"When man makes an effort, something in the universe lends him a hand--The pressure of God's will on human life."

Paul W. Scherer

During our years of nursing education, we have come to respect and love the efforts of one who has opened to us a new branch of medicine, and whose task is not completed when the operation ends. He taught us the importance of skillful, competent nursing care through patience and understanding.

We know him by his walk late in the night as he keeps vigil over those entrusted to his care. With deep gratitude and admiration, we, the class of 1958, dedicate our yearbook, THE WHITE CAP, to our neurosurgeon,

DR. WALTER S. LOCKHART.

Prophecy

Whew, nearly didn't make it! Just don't know what this world is coming to—just knew that last car was not going to miss the top of our dear old Hill House. Guess I'd better hurry in and see if everyone is here for our class reunion.

Oh! There's JEAN ADAMS now. Did you know that she's taking care of six children and a husband? Just can't tell these days what will happen——. Wouldn't you know those five anesthetist, DIANE, VANN, CHERRY, LOUEEN, and DOLLY would wear masks (just letting us know the air needs to be filtered these days).

I also see ANNA and ELLEN in the corner of the living room talking over Anna's latest love. That girl surely has made progress—five marriages in five years is good for anyone. ELLEN has done well too! She and Bob own General Mills.

I wish that noise would stop—you'd think MAC and SHELBY would turn it off. Just because they're in the Air Force Nursing Corp they didn't have to bring the sound with them.

Gee, it must be nice to be a Director of Nursing. JOAN surely knows how to make the grade. She and Carroll settled in Raeford and she has that "Top-notch job."

Here come PAT and Henry and FRAN and Earl—those two girls never would let those boys out of sight.

Look—they've cut a hole in the roof of Hill House—wonder what that's for? Here comes LOLA DRIVER—she's still hanging onto that good progress record.

I hear another noise--Lands Alive! It's Clyde and MARY coming through the hole in the roof in a helicopter. Guess that's their latest source of entertainment. Well, LINDA's a famous poet now. After three years in nursing she decided to write poetry.

BETTY just walked in with two attendants from Dix Hill. She works there now you know. She's dedicated her life to caring for those innocent attendants. Don't think BANE will ever make it. She's in South Africa with Lloyd—they must have financed a jeep this time.

I see DAWSON is still telling her tales—she said something about mites and fleas going to the operating room I believe.

PAT D. has started a fan club for the betterment of Andrews. She's doing pretty well at it since she's been President. HAPPY HERNDON just walked in. She's still in her scrub dress. Don't guess she's had time to change. Don't forget to congratulate her on being O. R. Supervisor. Well bless my soul if LILLIE didn't finally get that "diamond" from Freddie.

Who's that I see. Why it's ALICE. She has really been selling the ad's. She and Vaden just bought out the New York Times Press. Here comes NANCY in a cloud of dust—OH! its that new Edsel with the driver and T.V. installed.

Well here comes the PHD WEAVER from Whaling—all those degrees don't do her too much good since the place is so small, but she has Macon.

HEATHER just came in, she really looks beat. I just heard her talking about a new course she is going to take. I wonder if she will ever find her calling. Those kids of MARIE'S really look nice to have been brought up on pepsies.

BENNIE HARRIS has brought a truck full of the latest style in nurses' uniforms which she model's in N. Y. From Faculty representative right up the ladder to State representative went our now distinguished classmate EDNA EARLE.

RUBY and her younger sister have an OB call register for Zebulon and the surrounding area. Heard it's a booming business. At last BARBARA H. has married that promising politician from Alamance County.

Oh, look who's coming through the doorway. ELSIE WATTS. Did you know she received her master's degree in nursing education at UNC? And who's that dental assistant standing at the door—why it's MARTHA—three years at Watts and she gave it all up to help Oscar.

And, since it's almost time to go I'd better close the script and return to the OB Department. I don't want to miss a page!

I, GLADYS HERNDON, leave my frilly negligee and lingerie to Betsy Parker.
I, LILLIE SYKES, do leave to keep up with Freddie.
I, ELLEN LYERLY, leave with one main idea—to keep Bob happy.
I, MARY ALICE WEAVER, leave my natural curly hair to Joy Crumpler.
I, MARTHA REYNOLDS, leave Wilson to go to Winston.
I, ELSIE WATTS, leave Frank to no one.
I, NANCY MURPHY, leave to go after the Edsel.
I, FRAN AHALT, leave my artistic ability to Connie Foster.
I, PAT CATES, leave my ability to always stay engaged, to Bette Thomas.
I, RUBY OVERMAN, leave my "SLEEPING" sign to the Freshman Class, as they will need it for the next two years.
I, JEAN ADAMS, leave my Nightingale poise to Madeline Winstead.
I, BARBARA HOLT, leave my enthusiasm to Margaret Cheek.
I, BARBARA McFARLAND, leave to help "Bill."
I, SHELBY DANIEL, leave my sweet and innocent ways to Carol Short.
I, MARIE FOGLEMAN, leave to marry "Hoppy."
I, HEATHER HOPWOOD, leave my favorite expression "Shh—I'm trying to sleep" to the housemother.
We, DIANE RALPH and VANN MANGUM, leave our daily ward rounds to Peggy Poole.
I, BENNIE HARRIS, leave my date book and phone numbers of the Duke Fraternities to Annette Roundy.
I, LOLA DAWSON, leave my ability to preserve borrowed articles and the citation for "years' most lived in room" to Joyce Thornton.
I, MARY MADREN, leave my love problems to Dorothy Dix.
I, DOLLY STRAYHORN, leave my fond memories of the "Hill."
I, EDNA REGISTER, leave my detailed talking ability to Fran Smith.
I, LOUEEN McLAURIN, leave my place on the tennis court to anyone who can work permanent evening duty.
I, ALICE McCULLEN, leave my car to Lou Graves.
I, FRANCES BANE, leave to Lois Robinson my common sense, imagination, and—"see you later, heah-"

Class History

September 6, 1955 marked the beginning date of our nursing career when fifty-six young and eager girls entered the Watts Hospital School of Nursing. Fun and excitement filled the first three days which included making friends, unpacking, parties, and trying to find our way around our new homes, Staff House, and Wyche House, better known as "Witch House."

Nursing life was really going to be fun. Our thoughts suddenly changed the day we came from the classroom loaded down with books. Each night at seven o'clock came a familiar cry, "In your room girls." Desperately, we tried to determine if the toe bone were connected to the foot bone. Oscar really provided us a perfect set of bones to study and view. Suddenly, we felt we were really beginning to learn how to become a nurse. Next came nursing procedures and "Miss Chase" was the perfect patient. Never a complaint did she make about our nursing care. This was a trying period; but we were particularly guided by Miss Jaeger, Miss Perry, and Mrs. Pierce.

Our class leaders for the first year were: President - Jean Adams, Vice-President - Vann Mangum, Secretary - Martha Reynolds, Treasurer - Diane Ralph. We tried hard to strike it rich! Never will we forget that HOBO DAY, and all the work that we did. Our class sponsors were Misses Perry and Jaeger, who led us successfully through those nine trying months. Remember all the tears, beach trip, the packing and unpacking.

At the end of nine months of hard study, we were anxious to don those bibs and yearned to wear a white cap. On June 10, 1956, at Trinity Methodist Church, we received our caps in a beautiful impressive ceremony. As we pledged the Nightingale Pledge, we realized more than ever the great responsibility before us. At last we felt that we were a part of the hospital personnel.

Suddenly we all were divided going to different wards and into special services. Eight hours a day overwhelmed us with new problems and more responsibilities. Our days in the operating room included many new terms and experiences including "call," masks, and sterile technique.

Summer quickly passed and we became jolly juniors. An honor known as "Junior Slump" was bestowed upon us. Our obstetrics rotations began with a familiar "push, push." Those full moons really kept the stork working full time.

Our Junior class officers were: President - Diane Ralph, Vice-President - Nancy Murphy, Secretary - Dolly Strayhorn, Treasurer - Patricia Derreberry. Our sponsor was Miss Perry. One of the most important events in our Junior year was the selection of a class pin. How we cherished and proudly wore them. Distingished Juniors were we!

Again summer passed swiftly away, classes ended and vacations were welcomed. The fall was eagerly awaited—it marked the beginning of our Senior year. It was truly THE DAY when we received our black bands to add to our white caps. This "halo" marked the highest step. At last we were sophisticated SENIORS!

Some of us began classes and studies; while others went to the Hill to begin a new experience in nursing. Those twelve weeks spent at the Hill were the greatest! Never will we forget those memories.

Our class officers were: President - Diane Ralph, Vice-President - Mary Madren, Secretary - Betty Williams, Treasurer - Vann Mangum. Class sponsors were Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Workman. We lost Mrs. Workman in the spring of our senior year, and we elected Miss Oyler to be our sponsor.

Things really kept us stepping this pass year. Selling ads, subscriptions, selecting superlatives, taking pictures, and compiling all the material to make our annual kept us busy.

Time is fleeting away when student days will be a memory of the past. It seems so hard to say goodbye but memories will long linger in our hearts. At last we have accomplished our goal. We now face a future filled with excitement. The end is just the beginning! May we give to the world the best we have——.

Poem

In the quietness of the night
Darkness is shadowed..by one
Lone light—as the Nurse
Her charges all in bed..turns
To duties that fall upon her head.

Her watch ticks on; the evening barely falls.
The linen's out..the charts are drawn.
Then suddenly a patient wakes and calls
And instantly her weariness is gone.
Swiftly and steadfast she guides her light
To fall upon the bed...
Of her patient and his plight!

As night wears on she works serene
With patience, hope and gentle care.
She is the mechanism...
The very pulse of the machine.
She stands—a statue aglow in white
Crowned by a muslin cap—her symbol
Of professional light.

She's on her feet, each movement sure
And fast—until another's need
Is cared for and quickly past.
Dawn comes..wearily her duty hours fall.
She is a nurse, chosen and dedicated to all.

School Song

We came to Watts from far and near,
And brought to her our needless fear,
And she with patience took our youth,
She set us in the way of truth.
This our vow as on we go,
Zoe moe sas agapo. *

What if she gave us arduous work!
There is no task we dare to shirk,
To ease the suffering, lighten pain,
To comfort others, not for gain.
Hence this song that all may know.
Zoe moe sas agapo.

Stern teacher, kindly too.
We will often think of you.
Bringing memories of the past
Such as shall forever last.
Will we e'er forget thee? No!
Zoe moe sas agapo.

*By my soul I love thee.

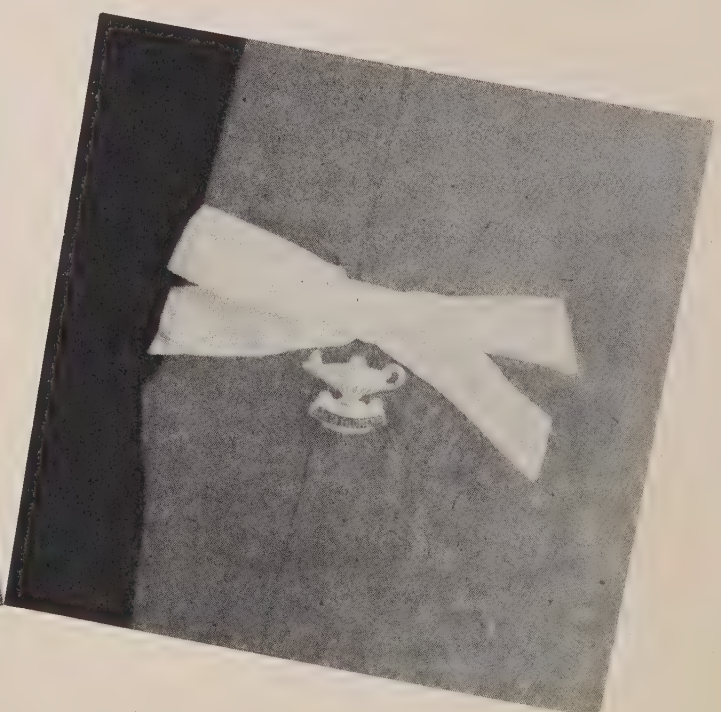
Santa Filomena

Santa Filomena is a senior honorary society composed of senior students who have gained recognition in leadership and have demonstrated outstanding ability. Its objective is to give better nursing care and help raise nursing standards. The flower of the Santa Filomena is the white lily and its pin is the miniature gold Florence Nightingale lamp. The pin is worn with gratitude and honor by those who are selected to represent this society.



Vann Mangum, Betty Williams.

"Annie"

Annie is the lady who is loved by all and given to the closest roommates in the senior class. She is passed on, at the end of the year, to the roommates of the Junior Class who deserve her. She is a symbol of love, companionship, and friendliness to all.

Practical School of Nursing

The Practical School of Nursing offers a twelve month course in which the students get a thorough background of bedside care. After completion of the course they are examined by the State Board of Practical Examiners and are licensed. A licensed practical nurse may be employed as a private duty nurse, a general duty nurse, an office nurse, and in many other nursing fields. There is also a course in operating room technique being offered to graduate practical nurses.

Instructors are: Miss Webb, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Holloway, and Mrs. Johnson.
